

DAUGHERTY'S OFFER TO RETIRE BELIEVED NEAR McAdoo's Son Mentioned In McLean Telegrams

MEN WHO HELPED MAKE PORTSMOUTH

Brief Sketches of Their Lives, Which Should Be An Inspiration to All; Opportunities In Portsmouth for the Hard-working, Conscientious Young Man Just As Good As Anywhere Else In The World

Superintending the Sunday School of the First Christian Church is the real vocation of Charles M. Howland, or "Charlie" as he prefers to be called. Acting as president, treasurer and general manager of the Dove Hat Co. is his avocation, a side-line to his real job of managing a Sunday School of a thousand members. Born on a farm near Decatur, O., August 2, 1877, Mr. Howland came to Portsmouth in 1907 as bookkeeper for the Dove Hat Co., established in 1892 as a wholesale house carrying the Dove quality line of hats, caps and sweaters. At Miami University, Oxford, where "Charlie" was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon, his prowess in athletics won him the coveted letter M, which was later augmented by his capture of an O, when he played on Ohio State's champion 1900 football team. The following year Mr. Howland coached the Heidelberg football team and then taught school and farmed in Brown county until the year he and Mrs. Howland came to Portsmouth.

Beginning as bookkeeper in 1907, Mr. Howland has seen the business of the Dove Hat Company grow from a small concern located in the Houston building to a thriving enterprise owning its own home, the Fuller building, purchased in 1911, and the Riley building in 1922. From three salesmen the force has increased to eleven operating in eight states, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Tennessee. Coincident with the growth of the company has been his own rise to the position of president and general manager. Mr. Howland is president of the Portsmouth Association of Credit Men.

Athletics and recreation still remain Mr. Howland's pet hobbies. He was one of the organizers of the Portsmouth Volley ball league, takes part in basketball tournaments, is a member of the Masonic bowling league, and plays baseball enthusiastically. Just for aesthetic balance he plays the piano, and when his three brothers and four sisters all of whom are musical, go home for family reunions the neighbors think a concert troupe has come to town. As a member of the board of directors of the American Red Cross, a director of the Bureau of Community Service and a member of the First Christian Boy Scout committee, Mr. Howland is particularly interested in the recreational features of the work of these organizations. "We need more play," he says, "if we all had some out-door hobby, such as fishing, hunting, or one of the active sports we would have better health, be happier and do better work." Mr. Howland has one son, "Billy Lee," 8 years old, who is destined to win all the championship loving cups in athletics and become the junior partner in his father's company.

Mr. Howland sees splendid opportunities in the business world of Portsmouth for his own "Billy" and for all other boys who will be grown men in a few years, leaving college and looking for a place to start their work. "Portsmouth has developed wonderfully in the last 17 years. There are more varied industries and with a variety of industry there naturally follows a variety of opportunity," Mr. Howland says. "The young man looking for an opening need not look to the larger cities, for he can find his chance to make good in almost any line right here in Portsmouth."

STATEMENT TO BE MADE BY OHIOAN LATE TODAY

WASHINGTON, February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—An offer by Attorney General Daugherty to retire to private life when the senate completes its investigation of his official acts is believed in some administration circles to be imminent.

Under the plan he would step out of the cabinet regardless of the outcome of the senate inquiry and would announce that intention to the country in advance.

A statement from him is expected before the day is over. There is a belief in some quarters that it may end the latter controversy of which he has become the center.

There still are some of President Coolidge's advisers, however, who believe that a promise to resign at a future date will not satisfy the attorney general's critics in the senate.

Whether it would be entirely satisfactory to Mr. Coolidge himself remains undisclosed. He conferred for an hour again today with the attorney general, but made no statement. From the start the attorney general has insisted he would not retire from office under fire.

The president has considered painstakingly how such a compromise might be worked out. He has conferred with all parties to the controversy and has sought the advice of his closest personal friends in an effort to compose one of the most difficult situations with which he has had to deal since he entered the White House.

The whole maze of conflicting advice was brought under scrutiny late last night at a conference between the president, Secretary Stimson, Frank Steney, a long time friend, and William Duller, manager of the Coolidge presidential campaign.

This photograph was taken in December, 1923, and shows Attorney General Daugherty (left) talking with former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall, both of whom are reportedly brought to public attention in the investigation of naval oil land losses. It was snapped just outside White House executive offices.

Clerk Swallows Sixteen Pins

TOLEDO, O., February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Miss Adelle Urban, department store clerk, is in a serious condition in St. Vincent's Hospital as a result of swallowing 16 pins, it was revealed today.

While at work Saturday she had the pins in her mouth when a clerk offered some candy. She put the candy into her mouth and swallowed the pins with it. The girl screamed and clerks rushed to her aid. She was hastened to the hospital where an x-ray examination revealed the pins in her stomach. No attempt yet has been made to remove the pins.

3000 PEOPLE STORM HOTEL; BREAK UP KLAN MEET

WAUKESHA, WIS., February 27.—Three thousand persons stormed the Commercial Hotel, in the heart of the town, last night, broke down doors and smashed windows, and disrupted a meeting of the Ku Klux Klan. The Klan meeting was scheduled to appear. The Klansmen escaped to the second floor of the hotel from which they were rescued unharmed by police and men called from Milwaukee after Captain Harry Welch, past commander of the Waukesha Post of the American Legion, had addressed the attackers from the shoulders of several men.

The meeting was the result of about two weeks' effort to organize a Klan unit here. When the Klan speaker arose and announced that a speaker would open the meeting, he was greeted with catcalls, jeers and a man jumped (Continued on Page Four)

MESSAGES TO McLEAN MADE PUBLIC

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 27.—(By the United Press)—Francis H. McAdoo, son of William G. McAdoo, Democratic candidate for president, has been definitely identified by the senate oil committee as the McAdoo mentioned in several telegrams sent to E. B. McLean, Washington publisher, during his recent sojourn in Palm Beach.

References to McAdoo in the telegrams indicated his advice as a lawyer was being sought by McLean on certain matters the nature of which was not made clear.

Official announcement that the mysterious McAdoo was the son of the Democratic leader was made by Chairman Leonard of the committee after the telegrams had been read today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Telegrams sent to Edward B. McLean, A. B. Fall and others at Palm Beach, Fla., and relevant to the oil inquiry were read into the record today.

The first from John Major, at Washington, to McLean at Palm Beach, suggested, to McLean, that he contact the Washington Post, to McLean's cottage in Florida, so the publisher could have "easy and quick access to the White House."

The message said also that C. Bascom Stump, secretary to the president, would be in Florida shortly.

"William Dickinson, another employee of McLean, advised his employer, that Smithers would like the job of operating the special wire."

In another message, Major told McLean he had talked again with "J. W. Zevilly, Palmer's law partner, who said the matter would be attended to in a manner satisfactory to you."

Another message said Fred Starck, a director of the War Finance Corporation, was anxious to get in touch with McLean on an important matter.

Palmer and Zevilly told McLean that under no circumstances should you send a message to the committee, said another message to McLean from Major.

"They said," the message added, "that after the man at Washington Post (Fall's hotel) testifies and the committee wanted you they could take care of you."

(Major is an employee of McLean here.)

A message from the White House, signed "E. W. Starling," and addressed to McLean, said that Starling had "wired Wilkins at Hopkinsville, Ky." (Starling is of the White House secret service staff.)

Major reporter to McLean that he had delivered a message to "McAdoo and Palmer as per your instructions."

In other messages there are references to Francis McAdoo, of New York, believed by committeemen to be the son of W. G. McAdoo.)

Under date of January 22, 1924, Mr. J. W. Zevilly told McLean that A. Mitchell Palmer (former attorney general and counsel for McLean) had gained the impression from Senator Walsh, that McLean would not be called before the committee.

This message added that "other people are working on Walsh."

William Duckstein, another employee of McLean, wired his employer that regarding Operator Smithers, he would like the job "wants to get away from telegraphy."

Just left the secretary at Wardman Park, Major wired to McLean, "he will go to Palm Beach. He declared you would not be called and that the entire matter will be closed after Sinclair testifies."

Major said he was arranging for Fall's trip to Palm Beach, but had doubt as to whether the secretary would be a guest of McLean.

"Saw Senator Walsh this morning," said a telegram signed A. Mitchell Palmer. "He would not commit himself."

FRANCE AND BRITAIN SEE CHANCE TO SETTLE EUROPEAN MUDDLE

BY FRANK H. SIMONDS
(Copyright, 1924)

LONDON Feb. 27.—"Not only is the best but it is also the first real chance of a general European settlement since the close of the Paris peace conference." This opinion, expressed to me by an Englishman of European reputation not connected with the present Labor government, pretty accurately measures the extent of the present optimism in this country. Settlement with France and the adjustment of Europe, these things are generally expected by the British public at the present time.

Ramsay MacDonald's greatest critics agree that in the foreign field he has begun well. By a single gesture, by his direct telegram of regret at Lloyd George's shining indiscretion in the matter of the Spender Inter-he suddenly brought him to Monsieur Poincare the fact that the new British Prime Minister intended to deal directly and openly. The results were astonishing in Paris.

Of course, MacDonald has the very great advantage of united national sentiment behind him. So far as Europe is concerned, so far as France is concerned, Britain has come down to a definite state of mind. While Lloyd George was in power as many British sympathized with France as with the British Premier who was dismissed, quite as much in London as in Paris. During the two recent Tory governments the struggle between Paris and London was carried on by the foreign offices, the British had a distinct, resentful feeling that his was getting the worst of it, but secret diplomacy covered the facts.

Put Ban On Peek-a-Boo Waists

BERLIN, February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Peek-a-boo waists have been forbidden by the Minister of Finance of the Berlin district in the "interest of economy." The decree has caused a sensation among the several thousand Municipal employees. Women when at work in the bureau, the office, the school, must have the shoulders and lower part of the neck covered.

Plain shirt waists wear longer and cost less to wash, it is held, and besides, attract less attention among the men, "who are also able to lose less time and do more work."

Murder Mystery Partly Dispelled

CHICAGO, February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Mystery surrounding the deaths of John Duffy, whose body was found near Argo, Ill., last Friday, twelve hours before the body of his wife, Margaret Exley Duffy, was found in their Chicago apartment, is partly dispelled following a statement by William Engkele that he was present when Duffy killed his wife during a quarrel and that Duffy later was killed by men he threatened to expose for refusing to help dispose of his wife's body. When arrested early today, Engkele was preparing to leave Chicago.

TRIBUTE TO HARDING IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—The senate and house today united to pay their formal tribute to the memory of President Harding.

Laying aside all pending legislation and submerging their various animosities, the members of both chambers met jointly in the presence of President Coolidge, his cabinet, the supreme court justices, state governors and foreign diplomatic representatives, to hear an eulogy of his late chief by Secretary Hughes. A section of the gallery was reserved for Mrs. Harding and a group of her friends.

Arrangements to broadcast the services throughout the nation by radio called on the facilities of three stations, by WCAP at Washington on a 460 metre wave length and by WEAF at New York, and JAR at Providence, R. I., through relays.

WASHINGTON, February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Warren G. Harding "belonged to the aristocracy of the plain people of the United States," Secretary Hughes said today in delivering the eulogy of the late president at the joint session of the senate and house, which formed the official memorial exercises for President Harding.

"He was equipped for his task by inheritance and training which were completely and typically American," Mr. Hughes said. "He was neither helped nor hampered by exceptional environment. He suffered neither from poverty nor riches. His upbringing was a keen mind and a strong body."

"Alert to opportunity, self-reliant, facile and warm-hearted, he made his own way, giving his success to his tireless persistence and his unquenchable ardent in living."

Favor Ban On Sunday Golf

LOUISVILLE, KY., February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Many Louisville golfers were undetermined today whether to smile or frown over reading dispatches from Frankfort that the committee of social work in the state senate had reported favorably the bill of Senator J. B. Clark under which Sunday golf would be prohibited in Kentucky.

The measure, which was introduced by the senate, provides fines of $25 to $100 and jail sentences of 10 to 30 days for Sunday golf and the same penalty for wagering on "any game of golf played at any time" in Kentucky.

TAX REVISION MAY BE ONE OF PROMINENT ISSUES IN THE COMING CAMPAIGN

(BY DAVID LAWRENCE)
(Copyright, 1924, by Times Publishing Company)

WASHINGTON, February 27.—Tax revision for as it affects incomes derived during the year, 1924, is likely to be postponed until next autumn. A joint resolution providing for a revision in 1923 incomes, payable this year, will be passed much sooner. Almost over night the outlook for the passage of a comprehensive revenue bill has changed. The coalition between the Democrats and the insurgent Republicans has resulted in the framing of a bill which from the viewpoint of the Treasury will create a deficit and therefore must be vetoed. Unless the senate rewrites the measure—the chances are tax revision will be the paramount issue before the people in the coming campaign. Everything from now on will be done with a view to political advantage in the battle at the polls. Instead of going to the country with a bill for which both Democrats and Republicans could claim credit, the two parties will blame one another and ask for support so that a new tax bill can be passed.

The delay in enacting a new revenue bill, of course, interferes considerably with the plans of business concerns and individuals who are making their expenditures and investments during the year, 1924, but inasmuch as tax payments for this year's income are not due until next autumn, the delay is not a serious one.

Collieries Idle

WILKESBARRE, PA., February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Seven of the collieries of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company, involving about six thousand miners, were idle, according to early reports, today as a result of a strike vote taken last night. Rinaldo Cappelloni, president of District No. 1 of the United Mine Workers, declared that the strike is illegal and that unless the men return to work drastic measures would be taken by the union officers. A meeting to adjust the trouble will be held today.

ON THE WIRES

COLUMBUS, O., February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Warden F. J. Thomas of the Ohio penitentiary today confirmed reports from Cleveland that certain prisoners of the state prison have been secretly manufacturing duplicate automobile, license plates and smuggling them out to bandit pals and parole prisoners.

Warden Thomas said that the duplicate license plates had been going on about two weeks; that he was fully cognizant of it and that both Federal and local officials had been apprised of every shipment so they could arrest receivers of the plates. Warden Thomas said some five or six sets had been mailed out, some going outside the state.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Rev. Frederick Johnson, pastor of the Episcopal Church in Mansfield, Ohio, is under arrest here on open charge awaiting action of Federal authorities.

Johnson was arrested here with Pearl L. Dubanek, a soloist at his church, in an automobile, arriving in Jamestown several days later.

According to the alleged confession, Johnson was given a sum of money by his church to pay his expenses to a church conference in Buffalo and intended to return to Mansfield when the conference was over. He told police officers that he and Miss Dubanek were only "taking a little trip" and were going to resume their residence in Mansfield. The minister is married and has one child, living in Mansfield. The police say the couple have been living at a rooming house since their arrival.

The Attorney General not only declared there is no legal authority for the appointment of "hard men" by the state prohibition commissioner, but

BOY HIT BY AUTO; DIES

Injuries suffered Wednesday afternoon by George, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Clausen of 1234 Ninth street when knocked down by an automobile proved fatal, the lad dying in Sciotoville hospital less than an hour after the regrettable accident occurred.

One of the front wheels of the machine driven by Miss Anna Marie Capehart of Second street near Jefferson passed over the body of the child. In addition to internal injuries it suffered a fractured skull. It was in a dying condition when conveyed to the hospital and failed to regain consciousness. The father reached the hospital just before his son passed away. Miss Clausen was with her boy when he was fatally injured.

According to eye-witnesses to the accident, Miss Capehart was driving west on Sixth street and Mrs. Clausen and son were walking across the west side of Chillicothe, when the accident occurred. Miss Capehart was driving slowly, but did not see the child in time to prevent striking him, the child falling directly in the path of the machine.

When picked up he was covered with blood and it was soon seen that he had been seriously injured. He passed away before an operation could be performed. Mr. and Mrs. Clausen have lived in the city for many years. Mr. Clausen is employed in the Eastman law works on Front street. He found his wife in a hysterical condition when he reached the hospital.

Miss Capehart drove to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Capehart of Second street after the accident. She stated there that her machine was in low gear when the accident occurred and the Clausen child darted in front of her machine before she could stop it.

Mr. and Mrs. Clausen have another son in their family, Andrew, aged two years.

DOLLAR DAY IS SUCCESS; SHOPPERS THROG STORES

(Sydney Strange)

"Ting-a-ling" went our alarm clock this morning and for one sleepy second we wondered why we were getting up early. Then we remembered, "Dollar Day" and forthwith gave a good illustration of a person dressing to go to a fire. The thrifty girl in whose apartment we live was up earlier than we have known her to be since the Frieda Hempel case. And she already has one wreath of artificial flowers which she bought on Dollar Day a year ago and hasn't worn yet.

Out onto the streets we hurried. Passing a well known furniture store on Gallia street we met so many folks carrying little white enameled bath-tubs and kitchen stools that we thought we had run into the "Milk Maids' Chorus" of a musical comedy. Crowds of women waiting in front of one store which was not yet open. More women climbing off street cars at every corner. And nearly every woman carried a capacious shopping bag in which to "tote" home her purchases.

By 8 o'clock the aisles of the stores were jammed with eager purchasers, elevators were crowded, and salespeople were beginning to show the strain of waiting on half a dozen customers at one time. It was a practical, crowded, looking for practical bargains. And they found them. It was not the tables of novelties that drew the hordes, but the counters piled with substantial merchandise at greatly reduced prices. Shoes, gloves, hostery, house dresses, lingerie and household linens held the supremacy in the department stores. Household furnishings were in demand and many a housewife will brighten her home this spring with the attractive rag rugs, table runners and tapestries which were offered today, and kitchens will gleam with bright aluminum pots and pans.

One merchant reported at 9:30 that his store had already done what would normally be considered a good day's business.

Not all of the shoppers were women. A few brave members of the masculine persuasion could be discovered around the collar counters in the department stores, carefully sorting over hundreds of collars to find a half dozen that were just what they wanted. And the men's furnishing stores did a good business all day.

If one had just one dollar to spend it was as a real tragedy, for bargains beckoned in every direction. We took the dollar we had left from last week's pay and tried to see just how big a bargain we could find. And we saved 20 cents. That's a good percent. But what we bought is a secret. It wouldn't be any fun to be Sydney if we had to tell on ourself. Next year we're going to have a whole flock of one dollar bills and if we save 30 cents on each one maybe we can buy a new hat.

Anyways, Dollar Day is a great institution. Long may it prosper and put pennies in our pockets!

McAdoo Received Fee Of $200,000 In 1920 From Republic Iron & Steel Co., Charged

YOUNGSTOWN, O., February 27.—(By the Associated Press)—William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury in the Wilson administration, received a fee of $200,000 for intervention in a tax refund case of the Republic Iron and Steel Company in 1920, according to a copyrighted special story published by the Youngstown Vindicator today.

According to the story, Mr. McAdoo was engaged by Chairman John A. Topping of the Republic Company, just before the case came to a hearing, and affected a compromise with William M. Williams, then commissioner of internal revenue and members of the tax revision board. Due to this compromise, it is said, the Republic Company received a refund of about $2,000,000 immediately.

Local officials of the Republic Company maintain silence, saying that any statements relating to the company must be made by Mr. Topping who at present is on a yachting cruise off Miami, Fla.

About two weeks ago a similar story mentioning Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company as the concern which it is alleged had paid $200,000 to McAdoo, was published by the Cleveland Advertiser.

Local officials of Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, entered emphatic denials as to the naming of his concern. It was said at that time that the story referred to another Youngstown steel concern and not sheet and tube.

West End Flat Building Brings $20,000

Another important deal in West End really was completed Wednesday when James Hamish sold his three story brick apartment building at 512 Second street to F.

J. Yeager, a watchmaker in the employ of Albert Koellner. The consideration was $20,000.

The building contains six flats, a business room in the basement and a business room on the first floor. Mr. Yeager stated today that there would be no changes among the tenants in the building, as he bought it as an investment.

BIRTHS

A 9½ pound daughter was born Wednesday morning at Hempstead hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peery of 2219 Robinson avenue. Mrs. Peery before marriage was Miss Stetson in Holman, sister of Dr. Holman of Cincinnati.

Failed to Arrive.

Bishop Thurston of Oklahoma, who was scheduled to fill the pulpit of All Saints church last night, missed connections in Cincinnati and failed to arrive in Portsmouth. Rev. Harold Holt, pastor of the church went to Columbus this morning to attend a diocesan conference and will confer with Bishop Thurston about coming to Portsmouth at a later date.

At Home Again.

John Hughes, steelworker, formerly of 721 Third street, has been removed to his home at Union Mills from Hempstead hospital, where he underwent an operation recently.

Brock Adjudged Insane

Paul Brock, 18 years old, the youth, who, following his arrest a week ago by the police confessed to setting fire to the home of his parents on Front street, and to starting fires in other buildings about town in recent months, was adjudged insane by Judge Gilliland at the conclusion of an inquiry made as to the sanity of the lad in probate court Wednesday.

The youth was ordered by the court committed to the Athens state hospital, but he was allowed to go home with his father, Thomas Brock, until application for his admission to the institution has been approved by the hospital officials.

Doggy Sheriff Eliza Center and Ben Dunham, who returned the defendants to Portsmouth from the southern city, testified of a conversation while on the journey to Ohio, in which the prisoners admitted having been in Portsmouth and said they had been in the city since the night of November 23 last.

The defendants were convicted largely on circumstantial evidence adduced by the state and which showed that the stolen automobile was found in possession of the pair at the time of their arrest in Jacksonville, Fla., a few days after the theft.

Allen claimed that he bought the machine from a stranger in Knoxville, Tenn., for $200, and that he picked up McGrath when he overtook him walking along the road near Waycross, Ga., and carried him in to Jacksonville, where they were later arrested. Both denied ever having been in this city prior to the time they were arrested and brought here.

Changes Plan; Sentenced

When Robert Coper, Nite teamster constable, indicted on a charge of assault with intent to kill, appeared in Common Pleas court Wednesday he was permitted to change his plan of attacking Judge Thomas, the lesser offense of assault and battery and Judge Thomas fined him $25 and costs and sentenced him to thirty days in the county jail.

Prosecutor Skelton in a statement advised the court that the indictment against Coper grew out of the defendant attacking Charles Redman, Upper Twin Creek farmer, with an axe during an altercation over a road a few days ago.

Judge Blair in urging leniency pointed out mitigating circumstances and claimed that the defendant was the aggressor.

Alleges Willful Absence.

Lumber Expert Addresses Kiwanians

So far as the supply of yellow lumber is concerned the people of this country need give themselves no uneasiness. According to T. B. Thomas, representing the J. B. Thomas Co., lumber mills of Birmingham, Ala., there is still standing in the rough more than 200 billion feet of yellow pine in that state alone. It is being milled quite rapidly, so Mr. Thomas told the Kiwanians at Wednesday's noon luncheon at the Mary Louise hotel.

There is a sufficient amount to last this country for more than a quarter of a century and when that is used up the second growth will have reached the "stage" of being cut and milled, Mr. Thomas said.

Mr. Thomas, manager of the H. Leet Lumber Co., prefaced his remarks concerning the lumber business in the south by several humorous stories. He stated that some of the mills in the south were cutting as high as three million feet per day, covering sixty acres.

The local club will enter an attendance contest with the various clubs throughout the country beginning next Wednesday. A gold loving cup will be presented to the winner at the international convention to be held at Denver, Colorado. Secretary H. Gleason, Duluth, announced that when a Portsmouth Kiwanian happened to be visiting in another city and attended the Kiwanian meeting there he could be counted present. However, excuses while absolving a local member from expulsion, would count against the attendance percentage.

Vice President M. A. Coe presided at Wednesday's meeting and introduced Vaughn Finney who stated on next Wednesday Rev. Walter H. Smith, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, would deliver one of his Chautauqua addresses. Music will be furnished by the Trinity orchestra.

At the conclusion of the meeting motion pictures were thrown on the screens showing some of the big lumber mills in operation. A machine was secured through the courtesy of Bob Wood, manager of the Eastland theatre, who was also at the operating helm.

A Triumph in Motion Picture Production

The crowning achievement of that gifted actress who sways the hearts of men with the same grace and ease she moves her feathered fan.

Norma Talmadge as Yoelanda de Breux—fairest flower of France, now cold in pride, now rich in promises of love.

On a crippled child, her little invalid sister, her love was lavished.

And her hate on Rupert de Vreux, noble of France, and her hereditary enemy, now bound to her as a common slave.

There is a romance—magnified, glorified and entrancing, set in a maelstrom of massacre and strife.

MRS. ANNA ENGLE

Stuebenville, Ohio.
Every day people in all walks of life are testifying in no uncertain terms as to the benefits received from Ka-diok in illness of long standing. Recently, Mrs. Anna Engle, of 1800 Sinclair avenue, Stuebenville, O., a lifelong resident with this new herbal remedy, said:

"I had suffered from stomach trouble for more than five years. My food would ferment and turn sour and I was badly nauseated. My stomach would fill with gas and would cause me severe pains around my heart. Sometimes I had dizzy spells. I could seldom get a good night's sleep and was very nervous and miserable. This condition existed for years and I could find no permanent relief. Finally a friend of mine recommended Ka-diok to me and I was induced to try it. I am truly glad I did so, for, after using Ka-diok for a short time, I am an entirely different woman. My stomach trouble was entirely left me and I am able to eat anything I care for without any pain and distress afterwards. I am sleeping soundly every night and have grown a whole lot stronger. Ka-diok is certainly a fine remedy and I can confidently recommend it to stomach sufferers."

Ka-diok can be obtained in Portsmouth at Fisher & Streich Drug Store.—Advertisement.

Sciotoville M. E. church revival, closed last night, having been in progress two and a half weeks.

Much interest was manifested in this revival from the start. John McMillan, Clem De Bruin and Rev. Freeman Chase, had charge of the music which had much to do with the unusual attendance throughout. Conversion and the spiritual life were strongly emphasized from the pulpit and the entire membership of the church has been greatly awakened. Uniting with the church was not the purpose but quite a number will be received into church fellowship. The meeting was a qualified success.

HUSBAND IN WAR OF 1812

Widow of Virginia Militiaman Still Living—Black-Draught "A Household Remedy with Us," She Says.

Kingsport, Tenn.—Mrs. Fannie V. Thompson, who lives just across the state line from here in Scott County, Virginia, is the widow of George Washington Thompson, who fought in the War of 1812. Although that was over 110 years ago, Mrs. Thompson herself is but 75 years old and doesn't look that age. Her life has been, and still is, an active one, and she takes a great interest in the affairs of the day.

"Two years ago," says Mrs. Thompson, "while I was visiting relatives in Russell County, Virginia, I read about Black-Draught. It seemed to be a very remarkable medicine, so I thought I would try it. When I got home, my daughter got a box of this medicine at the store and we began to use it in our family."

"Black-Draught is a good reliable medicine. It is a household remedy with us for . . . trouble, which is caused by the strong lime-stone water we have to drink in this country."

"Occasionally I suffer from headaches caused from constipation and biliousness and for it I have invariably used Black-Draught for the past two years. My health has always been good."

Black-Draught is used, with satisfaction, by millions. Try it.—Advertisement.

GOOD MANNERS

Partners at the Table

If two persons, not introduced to each other before, happen to find themselves partners at the dinner table, they should immediately be introduced by the host or hostess.

The Messrs Catherine and Alice Weber arranged a delightful surprise party on Monday evening at their home, 2114 Vinton avenue, in honor of the birthday anniversary of their mother, Mrs. A. J. Weber.

Mr. and Mrs. Weber were invited to the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Weber on Grandview avenue for a beautifully appointed six o'clock dinner, and their guests were seated in a room which was attractively decorated with bouquets of fragrant sweet peas and carnations and the guests assembled for the surprise party.

When everything was in readiness, Mrs. Weber was called home on a pretext that an unexpected visitor had arrived, and it was not until the lights were flashed in the living room that she realized she was the happy victim of a pleasant surprise.

After showing her with many beautiful and useful presents and wishing her "many happy returns of the day," the guests found their places at eight tables arranged for cards, which formed the interesting diversion for the remainder of the evening.

Prizes for high score were awarded to Mrs. Roy W. Evans and Mrs. Jesse Cassidy. Later a tempting salad course, cake and coffee were served. The table was centered with a large pink and white birthday cake and places were laid for the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cassidy and son Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Orbaner, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Beacock, Mr. and Mrs. J. were absorbed and lost in the ranks of the crowd of onlookers which in its turn fell back before the continued menace of those impatient groans. The gentleman in blue swung to the children.

"Take up," he bade them. And they, seeing themselves now delivered from their assailants, and their main anxiety being to remove themselves and their charge from so hostile a neighborhood, obeyed him. They still enjoyed the protection of this demigod, though he obeyed him.

"This Grace of Buckingham—for already the people had recognized him, and his name had been uttered with awe in their ranks—stepped ahead, and waved back those who stood before him.

"Away!" he bade them, with the air of a prince, speaking to his grooms. "Give room!" he disdained even to use the menace of his sword, which he now carried tucked under his left arm. His voice and mien sufficed, and a lane was opened in that living press through which he advanced with calm assurance, the chairmen hurrying with their burden in his wake.

The lackeys closed in behind the chair and followed to form a rear-guard; but there was scarcely this need, for all attempt to hinder or molest the chair was at an end. Indeed, none troubled to accompany it further. The people broke up into groups again, or moved away about their business, realizing that here the entertainment was at an end. The fanatics who had led the attack and the knaves who had joined him had vanished suddenly, mysteriously, and completely.

A few spectators, whom curiosity or interest still attracted, were still about the spot, so abrupt was his appearance.

He had drawn his sword, and with the menace of this and of his voice, combined with his imperiously commanding mien, he drove himself a way through the press to the chair. After him, in plain striped liveries with broad, fawn hats, came four stalwart lackeys, obviously lackeys with whips which they appeared now to hold in their hands.

Like an archangel Michael scattering a legion of demons did that gay yet imposing rescuer scatter those unclean assailants, that helpless lady, the bright blade of his sword whittled hilt and thither, dealing over a wider ring about the chair, and his vice accompanied it.

"You mangy tykes! You filthy vermin! Stand back there! Back, and give the lady that back, or by Heaven I'll send some of you where you belong."

They proved themselves as cowardly as they had lately been aggressive, and they slipped nimbly beyond the reach of that darting point of his. His followers fell upon them afterward with their whips and drove them still further back, reticently, until they

Colonel Holmes, soldier and adventurer, returns to England, the land of his birth, when war is declared with Holland. He comes to lodge with Martha Quinn, hostess of the "Red Head," in Paul's Yard, London.

It is dangerous for the colonel to secure a commission in the English army because the name of Randall Holmes, father of the colonel, is on the warrant for the execution of the late king.

Martha Quinn proposes marriage to the colonel and, when he refuses her offer, she becomes angry. She tells Holmes to find other lodgings immediately.

Because he is financially embarrassed, the colonel goes forth to sell a cherished ruby. His Grace of Buckingham hires several rogues to frighten the address, Sylvia Parquharson, so that he may play here and rescue her from them.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Whence or how old came was not easily determinable. The tall, graceful man in the golden periwigs with the long white ostrich plumes in his broad hat, seemed, together with those who followed him, to materialize suddenly upon the spot, so abrupt was his appearance.

He had drawn his sword, and with the menace of this and of his voice, combined with his imperiously commanding mien, he drove himself a way through the press to the chair. After him, in plain striped liveries with broad, fawn hats, came four stalwart lackeys, obviously lackeys with whips which they appeared now to hold in their hands.

lant. Oh, sir, I am none so easily cozened. I was a fool to allow myself to be deceived into fear by those other silly mummings, the first murderer and his myrmidons. It was poorly contrived. Yes, it carried the groundings in Paul's Yard quite off their feet, and they'll talk of your brave carriage and mighty mien for a whole day, at least. But you can scarce expect that I should have me as well; since I am in the play, as it were."

It was said of him, and with truth, that he was the most impudent fellow in England, this lovely, accomplished, foolish son of a man whose face had now put him out of countenance, and he could master the fury it awoke in him. Yet master it he did, lest he should out a still orrier figure.

"I vow," I vow you're monstrous unjust," he contrived at last to stammer. "You ever have thought the worst of me. It all comes of that cursed supper party and the behavior of those drunken fools. Yet I have sworn to you that it was through no fault of mine, that my only satisfaction lay in your prompt departure from a scene with which I would not for all the world have offended you. Yet, though I have sworn it, I doubt if you believe me."

"Does your grace wonder?" she asked him coolly.

He looked at her a moment with brooding, wicked eyes. Then he loosed some little of his anger, but loosed it on a pretence.

"I would to Heaven I had left you to those knaves that persecuted you!" She laughed outright. "Thank you, grace for the entertainment provided, and since it has proved unprofitable, trust your grace will not go to the pains of providing yet another of the same kind."

She turned from him with almost contemptuous abruptness to command the chairmen standing at his side.

"Take up, Nathaniel. Let us on and quickly, or I shall be late."

She was obeyed, and this departed without so much as another glance for the Duke of Bucks, who, too crestfallen, to attempt to detain her, or to renew his protestations, stood tall in hand, while with ungracious his lip, conscious above all, that she had plucked from him a mask that left him an object of derision and showed his face to appear the face of a fool.

In the background his lackeys, sought with pains to preserve a proper stolidity of countenance, whilst a few passersby paused to stare at that splendid bareheaded figure of a courtier rarely seen on foot in the streets of the city. Conscious of their regard, jangling it with a greater penetration that it could possibly possess, his grace conceived them all to be the mocking witnesses of his discomfort.

He ground his heel in a sudden spasm of rage, clapped on his hat, and turned to depart, to regain his waiting coach. But suddenly his right arm was seized in a firm grip, and a voice, in which quivered wonder, and something besides, assailed his ears.

"Sir!"

His swung round, and glared into the shaven, aquiline face and wonderful eyes of Colonel Holmes, who had come up behind the chair whilst the Duke was in conversation with his occupant, and had gradually crept nearer, as if drawn by some irresistible attraction.

TO REAPPRAISE PROPERTY

IRONTON, Feb. 27.—(Special to Times)—A movement got under way today, fostered by members of city council, to re-appraise property of this city, with a view to increasing the city's revenue.

A petition seeking the reappraisal was signed by seventeen well-known citizens today, and the required twenty-five signatures are expected to be obtained tomorrow.

Last December the city council anticipated revenue of $23,000 from the first half tax collection, and when the money was paid, it turned out to have dwindled to $16,500, it was said here today by persons interested in the proposed re-appraisal, which would effect only city property.

RADIO WILL NEVER REPLACE WIRE PHONE SERVICE, SAYS ENGINEER

COLUMBUS, Feb. 27.—(By the A. Rhodes explained that the American company has developed the telephone system that permits three conversations to be carried on over two wires. He said this development alone had saved the Ohio Bell company and its twenty-four associate companies $80,000,000 in wire and construction. He also stated that all receivers, transmitters and cables used by the Ohio Bell company are loaned to it free of charge by the American company.

Mr. Rhodes' testimony is being offered to justify the 4 1/2 per cent of the gross revenues of the Ohio Bell company being taken by the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

'Twill Be Case of Wild Bull Meeting Wolf

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The legend which grew around the Argentine when he came out of the Argentine is already beginning to develop. Quintan Remero-Rojas, Chilean heavyweight, whom Tex Rickard has called from obscurity as possible opponent for Jack Dempsey.

Quintan became the "Wild Bull of the Pampas". Rojas was christened "The Wolf of the Andes". An Argentine where he did most of his fighting. Rojas is as awkward as a bull. He has a thick, heavy neck, a right hand hammer drive in the back of his opponent's neck. His style is distinctive for its lack of form. He is said to be quite as hairy as Fierro, speaks "no English," and maintains a brotherly affection for his manager, a lifelong Chilean friend.

Although Quintan's clumsiness failed to impress critics in France, he never lost a fight there. He is big and courageous as Fierro and since returning to South America has become so prominent that

IRONTON LASSIES HERE FRIDAY

What will probably be the last high school game of the season on the local court will be offered Friday night when the P. H. S. girls meet the Ironton high school lassies in a return game. When they met at Ironton several weeks ago the locals won, but only after a five minute extra period was played.

The locals have suffered only two defeats this year. Ashland claimants of the Kentucky state championship and Lancaster holders of the title in Ohio being the two to turn the trick. When the class of the teams that won victories is considered it is easy to see that the locals have a team that is holding its own on the hardwood court this season. The game will begin at eight o'clock.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NIGHT IS SUCCESS

Sunday School Night at the Terminals revival was a splendid success. Tuesday evening was Sunday School Night and each class made a strong effort to have more present at the service than was present at Sunday School Sunday. The class taught by Miss Shirley Workman made the best record having six more present than were present Sunday. The total attendance was far beyond any night of the services so far. A special feature of the service was a song by the Beginners' Department. Tonight is Men's Night. The men are on their toes to have a larger crowd present tonight than was present last night. The subject is "The Source of Eternal Life." There will be special music. Everybody is invited. You'll enjoy the spirited song service that fills the first half hour beginning at 7:15.

Says County Is Receiving Minimum Amount of Road Funds Allowed By Law

L. A. James, assistant treasurer of the Ohio Good Roads Federation, here in the interest of increased memberships for that organization, gave out figures today that shows Scioto county is receiving only a minimum of the total amount of road funds allowed it by law.

The last session of the General Assembly appropriated $5,000,000 for the construction of main market roads for the biennium period, 1923-24, to be equally divided between the 88 counties. Scioto county's portion of this fund is $59,300 a year, according to Mr. James, and this amount has been awarded by Highway Director L. A. Boulay as all that can be furnished Scioto County this year. An extensive road building program which would embrace, were sufficient funds available, the Oak Hills, Jackson, West Side-Orway and Buena Vista roads, is contemplated Mr. James says.

Where Scioto county comes in for the "small end of the horn," Mr. James disclosed, is in the distribution of another fund, the uses of which are left to the discretion of the highway commissioner. According to a copy of the acts of the last General Assembly, this fund for the biennium period was fixed at $2,800,000 or $1,150,000 a year. Where even a proportional amount of this fund granted Scioto county, the road program for the year could be greatly extended, Mr. James says.

Distribution of this additional fund is left to the discretion of the Highway Director, according to Adam Frick, Scioto county member of the General Assembly, and Mr. Boulay has indicated that none of this fund will be awarded this county during 1924.

Additional Federal aid road funds are also to be had by proper action, Mr. Frick indicated, after conference with Mr. James today. The main market roads of the state constitute 3500 miles of the 10,000 miles of main highways in Ohio; but a total of 5000 miles of Federal system has been authorized for the state, of which only 6500 miles have been taken up.

Mr. Frick hopes to have the Oak Hills-Jackson-Zanesville and Portsmouth Hillsboro-Dayton roads designated as part of the remaining 600 miles of Federal aid system authorized for this state.

John Peebles of this city is an honorary vice-president of the Federation and Mark W. Selby is on the Board of Trustees. An effort is being made to build up a larger membership in the southern Ohio counties where a number of good road projects are pending. The Federation assists in guarding and furthering good highways, better highway transportation, efficiency of highway administration, study of highway problems and policies, progressive legislation for simplified highway procedure, reduction in living costs through cheaper transportation, definite policy for improvement of state, county and township roads, more profitable farm-to-market roads, increased upkeep cost on roads and more convenience to the traveling public through better care of all highways in public use.

Shortly Harry Durham's official dog catcher, was abroad yesterday with his nets and his efforts netted three untagged canines, now confined in the county pound awaiting their execution unless rescued by their owners. Owners may recover their pets by calling at the county jail and paying the added penalties.

Unless claimed the dogs now in the pound will be destroyed Friday, it was stated.

The charges were made against Tex Rickard, promoter, by Tom O'Rourke, Rickard, visiting the commission to demand a hearing and full investigation was asked to appear before the body at a special meeting to be called when the private investigation is completed. The commission today took two titles out of cold storage. ## Arrested Before He Could Place Bet That Would Have Netted $1,900

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 27.—M. L. (Dixie) Espino, employee of a New Orleans electrical construction company in hard luck, visited the race track yesterday with a hot tip and $380 and was making his way through the crowd in the betting ring toward the bookies' stand, when intercepted by Deputy Sheriff Stakelum with a warrant charging forgery.

"Let me make one bet on this race," pleaded Espino, casting a frantic eye toward where the bookies were offering 5 to 1 against John T. D.

"I've got a straight tip," urged Espino. "I want to put $380 on his horse."

The deputy took the $380. A few minutes later John T. D. passed under the wire a winner, and the bookies were saved $1,900. Espino was arrested on affidavit sworn out by the president of the company employing him, charging that he had forged two checks amounting to $825. He was released on bond.

OVER the footlights or over the counter, it's the same story—the big public can't be fooled. If a play or a product makes good, it's because it is good! Chesterfield's swift rise was no accident. ## Syndicate Makes Final Appeal For Firpo-Wills Bout

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A final bid for a heavy weight battle on July 19 between Luis Firpo and Harry Wills was contained today in a statement issued by the New York syndicate, which has for several weeks been dueling a half million dollar purse in an effort to attract the principals into the match. Repeatedly, conditions imposed several days ago and subsequently rejected by Firpo, according to cable dispatches, the syndicate's statement asserts these terms will not be modified and unless the Argentine changes his attitude, all negotiations will be canceled.

Terms set forth by the syndicate which resulted in apparent breakup of negotiations included refusal to post a $20,000 forfeit in Buenos Aires, instead of New York and a demand that the South American, upon his arrival here, forego all barn-burning and exhibitions, and turn himself over to the syndicate's control until the Wills fight.

"We continue to stand by our original offer," the statement said, "and we will deposit the first installment of $20,000 of Firpo's $250,000 purse as a guarantee, within 12 hours of his called acceptance of our terms. We then stand ready to post an additional $100,000 to his credit with the same depository thirty days before the match, and the remaining $100,000 forty-eight hours before he enters the ring."

NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

Waverly
Some Coming at Methodist church last Sunday was home coming day at the local M. E. church and meetings were held morning, afternoon and night, a large crowd being present to take part in and enjoy the exercises. No doubt the crowd would have been augmented by former members of the church coming from nearby towns had the weather been more favorable. Mr. J. P. Breese of Portsmouth, who was on the program for a talk, was unable to be present. However, Charles Frank of Toledo, a former member of the local church, took the place of Mr. Breese and gave a most interesting talk. Otherwise the program was carried out as announced. Everyone present was greatly enthused over the proposal to build a new church and it seems almost certain that the church will be built. Many subscriptions, both large and small, have been made to the building fund. Several former members of the church have helped very liberally while the membership at home and the townpeople generally have subscribed very generously to the fund. A great deal more money is needed but the leading spirits are optimistic that it can be secured and a church built that the town might well be proud of. No site for the new church has been secured but the building committee is now giving this problem their earnest consideration. The building committee is composed of Frank C. Moore, S. D. McLaughlin, W. D. Dougherty, J. T. McLean and George C. Jones.

On Extended Visit.
Mrs. James W. Logan has gone to Toledo for a visit with her son, Richard, who is a prominent attorney in the lake city. From Toledo Mrs. Logan will go to New York City where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Cady Brown.

Miss Marian Foster spent the week-end in Columbus the guest of friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, daughter Carrie, and son Paul, were Sunday visitors here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. McLaughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Miles, daughter, Jane, and son, Jack of Kenova, were visitors here Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith and family. Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Gehrke and Mrs. Jennie Jones were also guests.

Henry C. Smith wrenched his back one day last week and has been confined to his home ever since.

Mrs. Lydia Jones of Portsmouth, is the guest of Mrs. Nettie Jones.

El. Downing left Monday for Portsmouth where he will take a position with the Harsha Milling Co.

Squire George Hager celebrated his 71st birthday Sunday by attending the home coming at the Methodist church, and incidentally, subscribing a substantial sum for the proposed new church. The genial Squire has enjoyed splendid health this winter, and looks good for several years yet in his manying sphere where he has joined over 2000 souls together in the holy bonds of matrimony. Here is a record never approached in the annals of Pike County.

WHEELERSBURG

The musical comedy, "Rev. Day-ton Up To Date" was given in the High School auditorium last evening by a group from the Trinity church of Portsmouth, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church, before a large audience. The play was very entertaining and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The entire cast displayed their various roles in great style and due to hard and long practice they had them mastered to perfection and the audience showed their appreciation by great applause.

The part of "Rev. Dayton", the leading character which was played by Mr. C. C. Bennett, scored one of the biggest hits of the evening. Mr. Bennett is a stage man of natural ability and his natural talent was placed before the audience in a high class manner at last night's performance.

Seek Use of Library For School Pupils

Requested use of the Portsmouth public library for pupils in the South Portsmouth schools, by Arthur Peters, superintendent, has brought the following reply from Adam Frick: I have for attention and reply your letter of the 21st instant in which you make inquiry for library service, is appreciated. Personally, I myself, would be delighted to have your students accorded the privilege of our Public Library because of the educational advantages, such would bring to them, however being but one member of the Board, the best that can be promised to you at this time is that the question will be presented to the Trustees at their next regular meeting, which will be during the ensuing week, and thereafter bring to you the thought of the other members on the question of supplying the service for your students. May I not express appreciation for the high esteem which your good folks convey to me, and in closing say that my greatest satisfaction
